5.10.86

I am reading a book in which many people reported having experiences with God, but almost all those people are told then by 'experts' that they should forget what they experienced because it is not God; they tell them that only highly elevated souls experience these things coming from God and that one has to be highly elevated too; as I know I am none of this and far from good, I decided to stop these meetings by writing with God; I might as well 'pack up' the whole thing; they seemed to say that that to reach God you have to be a saint and they made me believe God is so far; so, I will drop the whole thing leaving my hand write for the last time what it wants, led by the force that writes all these months;

Vassula! do not leave Me, beloved, be calling on Me and be learning from Me; remember, I am beside you all the time;

Me I was near you all the time, watching every movement you made, beloved; I called you so many times, but you were unaware of My Presence; now finally you heard Me and came to Me, why then do you doubt? (doubts after my contact with the priest) every time you are weak, doubting, remember what I have just told you; bear My Cross of Peace and Love and do not leave Me; come and pray with Me; (Jesus prayed with me. He was looking upwards while praying.)

I am guiding you to be aware of evil seeking the ruin of souls by feeding them his vanity;

with yourself, faithful to Me; I will feed you am not favouring you from others; My yes Lord... you have already accepted, remember? I know Jesus. But on second thoughts I can't, not that I don't want to, but I'm not worthy to be Your bride. How! How could I have accepted just like that without realizing its value!

Vassula, I will teach you to become worthy of Me; Even if I'm worthy, that's not enough.

Why? Because it's not just being worthy, there is more than that. I know, to be worthy is not enough, but I will teach you to be worthy and holy; you will have to work and earn it; come I will help you; you are going to remain My bride, a bride who needs forming;
